2024 the 4th European Conference on Communication Systems

We would like to invite you to attend 2024 the 4th European Conference on Communication Systems (ECCS 2024) that will be held during May 15-17, 2024 in Vienna, Austria. Organized by FH JOANNEUM University of Applied Sciences. ECCS has always been committed to providing an exceptional platform for researchers to showcase their work and engage in meaningful discussions with peers about the current state-of-the-art in communication systems. With your participation and contribution, we are confident that the conference will continue to promote the advancement of the field and foster collaboration among experts worldwide. We look forward to seeing you in Vienna, where we are confident you will have a valuable experience at ECCS 2024.
